

DAVID HALLMAN

WOODWORKER

DAVID HALLMAN has been turning wood since 1968, repairing antiques, making coat racks, quilt racks, candlesticks, covered boxes, and finally, exclusively wooden bowls.

He is a self-taught craftsman who loves the creativity of turning a block of wood into something beautiful and functional. Through trial and error, and a lot of patience, he started producing high quality wooden bowls and estimates he has made more than 2,000 bowls in the last six years.

He was named "Artist of the Month" in June, 2003 at Popular Forrest Craft Cooperative which features the work of artists in Central West Virginia. He was also named a "Featured Artist" in 2004 at The Gallery at Seneca Center in Morgantown, West Virginia.

His work is represented in many private collections in the U.S. and overseas. He currently lives and works in Bisbee, Arizona, and owns Bisbee Bowls at 40 Main Street which is open every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.
